FROM THE CHAIRMAN ANDREW JENKINS

I would like to welcome the directors, players and supporters of Mansfield Town today for this League Two match.

Like ourselves, Mansfield had a poor start to the season but, unlike us, they started their recovery earlier and climbed up the league, and are now in a play-off position.

We expect a challenging game, but as we know our players can rise to the occasion, so I expect it to be a close one.

It was disappointing last Saturday as Exeter scored the winner so late in the day, however, we have done the same in recent games.

I thought Exeter looked a good side, and they have for a number of seasons been building the team and challenging at the top of the division.

It is now 50 years since the club played in the Anglo-Italian Cup competition and the London Branch are working to produce a commemoration brochure to celebrate the occasion.

I do consider myself very fortunate to have lived through those years which saw the club spending many years in Division Two (now the Championship), and spending one season in the top level, even topping that league.

The team was built up from lower division players seeing them all pulling together to achieve the success you are fully aware of.

It was a much fairer football league in those days as we saw clubs like Northampton Town and Ipswich Town moving up and competing at higher levels.

I am sure we are all working to improve and compete in higher divisions, but as we know it is much more difficult to achieve this in the modern game.

I am also sure that today we will be giving everything to achieve a win against a team that is in good form.

Good afternoon and welcome to today's game against Mansfield Town. Welcome also to Nigel, his staff and players for what is another tough fixture.

It's another in our series of home games against teams who are battling at the top end of the table and their run of one defeat from their last six games has taken them to the brink of the automatic promotion places.

With so much still to play for at both ends of the table it means that every point will be contested through this final stage of the season by every opponent we come up against.

The Easter weekend is always important, with two games in quick succession offering teams opportunities to open or close gaps, consolidate positions, or give themselves a real chance – be that in terms of getting involved in play-off or promotion hunts or, and just as importantly, getting out and away from relegation zones.

That's no different for us but, I have to say, had we gone into the Friday game at Walsall with the maths telling us that we were safe it still wouldn't have changed our approach as far as I'm concerned.

I've said a number of times that as professional football people we have a duty to perform every time we go over the white line. These notes have been done before that game against Walsall, but whatever the result of that one was I can assure you we are here today to compete and to improve on what we did in the Exeter game.

That was a performance we were disappointed with, I spoke at length about that after the game, and I felt it was important for the players to acknowledge that and make sure they understood why as individuals and as a collective it went the way it did.

But I also wanted to make sure that they didn't lose sight of the fact that for the previous nine games since I came to the club they've given it everything, and the points tally they built up is testament to that.

It's now about finishing the job off properly, and as a management team we'll be making sure that the training and preparation we do is with that aim at the forefront of our minds.

Enjoy the game,

MANSFIELD TOWN

MANAGER NIGEL CLOUGH

Mansfield announced Nigel Clough as their new manager in November 2020. Clough joined the Stags after spells in charge of Derby County, Sheffield United and Burton Albion.

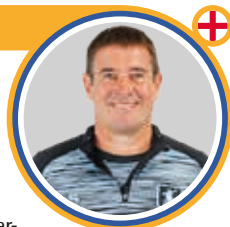

As a player, he made over 300 league appearances for Nottingham Forest, becoming the second highest scorer in Forest's history, before moving to Liverpool in 1993. He also spent time with Manchester City and Burton Albion as a player, in a career that saw him make 14 caps for England.

His managerial career started with non-league Burton Albion in 1998, and after steady progress in each of his first three seasons, the Brewers were crowned champions of the Northern Premier League in his fourth term at the helm. Burton were on course to earn promotion to the Football League for the first time in their history in the 2008/09 season, as Clough led them to the top of the Conference table, which included a run of 11 straight victories along the way.

He moved to Championship outfit Derby County in 2009, leaving a table-topping Burton side who would eventually go on to secure their Football League status in that season. Derby had fears of relegation before he took charge, but the now-54-year-old improved the club's form and finished 14th in his first full term, four places higher than the previous campaign.

He joined Sheffield United in 2013, and despite the Blades sitting in the relegation zone when he took charge, they ended the campaign seventh in League One. Sheffield United also became the first third-tier side to reach the semi-finals of the FA Cup since 2001, a run which included victories over Premier League outfits Aston Villa and Fulham. This success led to Clough being named as the FA Cup Manager of the Year. He returned to Burton Albion in 2015, guiding the Brewers to the Championship for the first time in their history.

STAR MAN RHYS OATES

Oates joined the Stags on a free transfer following the expiration of his contract at Hartlepool. Oates, who can play up front or out wide, fired in 18 goals last season as the Pools won promotion to Sky Bet League Two.

Starting his career as a youngster at Barnsley, the 26-year-old signed his first professional contract as a second-year scholar with the club, after winning the Academy Scholar of the Year award. The forward appeared ten times for the Tykes, whilst also spending time on loan with Gainsborough, Stockport, Grimsby and Chester during his spell at Oakwell.

Oates moved permanently away from Barnsley in 2015, signing for Hartlepool United. He made over 100 appearances for the Pools over three seasons, before signing for Morecambe in 2018. The former Barnsley man found the net six times in Morecambe colours before a return to Hartlepool last year, where he would finish as top scorer in a memorable season for the Pools.

Carlisle were on a good run of form when the Stags made their pre-Christmas visit.

The home team set the pace with a quick move down the right wing when Guy robbed possession with a superbly timed challenge. He found Alessandra, and his ripped pass was touched by Kayode as he turned his man on the penalty spot. His shot was blocked and it spun just wide of the target.

A 23-yard free kick was awarded at the other end and set piece specialist Mal Benning appeared to take control as he placed the ball in readiness for the strike. It was a double bluff as Maris took over, but his attempt was deflected high by the wall.

United almost picked the lock when tenacity from Riley saw him retrieve possession before sending Lewis Alessandra ▲ on a run. He bypassed the back line with a clipped through ball, and Patrick was on the overlap to cut it back. Mellish had made a move but it was swept away before he could finish it off.

Unbelievable defending from Sweeney prevented a certain goal on 16 minutes when Patrick sparked a move as he won the ball in his own half. It was fed to Alessandra, and his intelligent through ball left Riley with just Stech to beat. The keeper was taken out of it by a powerful volley but the Stags centre back somehow got there to make a stunning clearance off the line.

Time seemed to stand still on 27 minutes when a corner from Guy spun up off a defender. It bounced and twisted for an age inside the six-yard area as both Hayden and Bennett tried to get a boot on it. The stopwatch was eventually restarted and Benning wafted it away.

Patrick sent an effort from distance right at Stech as both teams played their part in a lively encounter, and the forward was immediately back to help out with the breaking up of an away attack as yellow shirts flooded the home area.

Good work from Mellish saw him bring Patrick into play 23-yards out, as United picked up the pace, but an outstretched toe from Sweeney was enough to bend his attempt away for a corner. There were loud screams for handball as Anderton recovered it with a cross, but referee Peter Wright showed no interest.

The Blues took the lead just before half time with what can only be described as a stunning goal. Jack Armer marked his first league start with a telling through ball and Omari Patrick ◀ initially trapped the ball with a perfect first touch and with his back to the target. He took everyone by surprise with his second touch - a crisp volley on the turn which whistled its way into the back of the net.

Jon Mellish found the side netting when a back heel from Alessandra invited him to go for it from a tight angle, but that was that for the first period as the Blues took their one-goal advantage into the break.

Pace and power from Anderton saw him sprint 40-yards with Charsley in his wake. His cross was cut out, and Mansfield responded with a good pass from Benning to Reid. He rolled it back for Lapslie to strike, but Hayden closed it down.

Skill you needed to see to believe came from Alessandra on 50 minutes when he dragged the ball back, spun it on his heel and left two markers for dead inside his own half. He was able to relieve the pressure as he sent Patrick up the right flank.

Confidence seemed to flow through the home side as they tried all kinds of tricks, and Riley wasn't afraid to shoot when the ball came his way. It hit a thigh and curled away to safety.

Riley was almost the man of the moment again when Armer nudged a pass his way. He was at distance, but he dropped a shoulder before letting it go. Stech had to dive low to make the two-handed save.

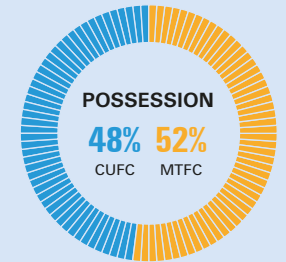

A heavy challenge from Clarke on Kayode caused concern, and he was booked, as was Bennett as the home team vented their frustration.

The decibel levels were lifted and Patrick looked for glory again as he angled a run past his man. His shot touched Sweeney and bulged the side of the net.

Another great home move was sparked when Anderton went on a run tight by the touchline. He found Mellish, and he dug deep to take two out before pulling it back. Riley was there again, but another block meant he was thwarted.

Substitute Gime Touré curled a long range punt at Stech as the clock ticked down, and United had to work hard through the closing stages to protect their goal.

Getting towards the end of season now – the Easter weekend used to be the time when promotion dreams were dashed or boosted and relegation nightmares became a reality.

Thanks to that amazing four weeks from 26 February to 26 March we no longer have to worry about repeating those away days of 18 years ago to Aldershot, Barnet, Woking, Dagenham etc, etc.

Mansfield, on the other hand, recently made their last trip for a while to Scunthorpe and hosted Sutton United at Field Mill/One Call stadium for the first time and will now want to make sure of a play-off place.

United and 'The Stags' have more connections than I had anticipated. We first met in 1932/3 when they were switched to Div 3 North after one debut season in Div 3 South - honours even with 3-1 home wins in both games. Mansfield moved back to the South Division in 1937 and then came North again from 1947. I wonder what their players thought of mid-winter trips to Barrow, Gateshead and Hartlepool rather than Torquay, Exeter and Bristol?

Their visit here in December 1956 promised no real excitement with both teams in the lower half of the table so fewer than 5000 spectators turned up at Brunton Park. The absentees missed a 6-1 home win and four goals from South African centre forward Alf Ackerman in his sixth game for United. Both teams won promotion from Division 4 to Division 3 and by Easter 1965 both were challenging for a further promotion. United were on a great run of 14 wins from 18 games.

Bristol City held us to 1-1 here on Good Friday and we then lost 2-0 at Mansfield on Easter Monday.

However, the very next evening, Tuesday 20 April, United beat Mansfield in the final game of the season 3-0 in front of 16000 jubilant Brunton Park fans to finish top with 60 points. Bristol City won promotion too with 59 points but Mansfield missed out on goal average. They eventually moved up to Division 2 in 1977 just as United came back down to Division 3!

Carlisle and Mansfield both did well in the FA Cup in 74/5 and 18293 fans saw the fifth round tie at Field Mill when Bobby Owen's goal earned a 1-0 win for United. We both enjoyed EFL Trophy success at Wembley – for Mansfield it was just the once, when they beat Bristol City 5-4 on penalties in 1987 after a 1-1 draw.

A rare television appearance for our clubs came on Friday 11 April 1997 - 0-0 draw at Field Mill in Division 3. That result clinched the third automatic promotion place for United just behind Wigan Athletic and Fulham and well ahead of Northampton who eventually joined us after winning the play-offs.

One of Keith Curle's early management jobs was with Mansfield from 2002 to 2004 and ten years later he was in Carlisle for a four-year spell.

Don O'Riordan had an impressive 100% Carlisle appearance record of 92 consecutive games in the number 5 shirt for 83/4 and 84/5 before moving on to other clubs including Mansfield.

Our Anfield League Cup goal-scoring hero, Derek Asamoah had played for Mansfield in 2004/5, while Reggie Lambe came directly to Brunton Park in 2016 after a couple of seasons at Field Mill. Others to represent our two clubs include Rhys Bennett, Kevin Hurst, Adam Murray and Hayden White.

IN THE SPONSOR'S LOUNGE

A big thank you to our sponsors from the Exeter City game.

Our match sponsors were the Bayley Family Gathering and our match ball sponsor was McCalls Bakers.

You can see them all here meeting Jamie Devitt.

Congratulations to the Vesta Wealth Man of the Match for the Exeter City game, Mark Howard, who was presented with his champagne by Nick Gardner.

As revealed earlier this month, the line-up for next weekend's Legends 94/95 v Legends 05/06 game is already bursting at the seams with big names and favourites set to grace the green grass of home once more, and another local lad has tonight committed to giving his support to the eagerly anticipated event.

We'll leave it to one of the organisers, Chris Lumsdon, to explain more.

"The fact that the game is raising funds for former United players who might need help in the future really seems to have captured the imagination of everybody," he said.

"So much so that Dean Henderson is supporting the cause with sponsorship, and he's also agreed to be involved in the event in some way on the day.

"Dean is a Cumbrian, he knows what both sets of players meant to the fans, and it comes as no surprise to us that he's agreed to help out.

"I think the fact that the money being raised is for such a good cause is making it a no-brainer for so many people to want to be involved.

"We're all just really looking forward to the day."

The 25-year-old joined Premier League giants Manchester United at the age of 14 having cut his teeth in the Carlisle academy system.

29 appearances for the Red Devils have been complemented by loan spells with Grimsby, Shrewsbury and Sheffield United, with 170 career appearances in total to his name.

And another former hero confirmed today that he'll be pulling on the shirt once more - and we're expecting it to be his trademark 'three sizes too big size' style that he used to model during his five seasons with the Blues.

"Brendan McGill will be playing for us, which is more great news," Lumsdon told us. "If you think back he liked the long-sleeved shirt, and for it to be baggy, so we're expecting more of the same."

Winger McGill played over 175 games for United, netting 19 league goals, and was a real thorn in the side for defenders with his positive approach and pace.

McGill joins the 05/06 squad, which includes the likes of Chris Billy, Tom Cowan, Matty Glennon, Danny Graham, Simon Grand, Kevin Gray, Karl Hawley, Derek Holmes, Chris Lumsdon, Peter Murphy, Luke Joyce, David Raven and Jeff Smith.

They're up against such giants as Stephane Pounewatchy and local lads Graham Anthony, Ian Arnold, Mark Boyd, Tony Caig, Marc Cleland, Scott Dobie, Darren Edmondson, Gary Gill, Andy Hart, Lee Peacock, Richard Prokas, Kevin Sandwith, Gavin Skelton and Derek Walsh.

Also popping along to add to the mix are Gareth McAlindon, David Currie, Derek Mountfield, Paul Proudlock and Dean Walling.

The respective teams will be managed by Mick Wadsworth and Paul Simpson, with former physio Neil Dalton helping out on and off the pitch.

Tickets are on-sale now priced at £6 for those over the age of 16 and £4 for those under the age of 16.

Purchase your tickets online, in-person at the ticket office or by calling 0330 094 5930.

The Sunset Suite and Sporting Inn will be open from 12pm on the day, and kick off in the big game will be at 1pm.

CHANGE IN THE AIR

Supporter Liaison Officer Simon Clarkson looks at the topical issues impacting on football and some personal suggestions on things that could be changed...

Last week we saw Crawley Town taken over by American investors, Wagmi United who are promising to use Web 3.0 technologies to empower the English fourth-tier soccer club's fanbase to make key decisions. I wonder if anyone knows what this means?

The new owners said "If we're trying to build a community club, and we are, then we have to build in mechanisms to hold ourselves accountable. So, if Crawley doesn't get promoted to League One by the end of our second season, which we think is about 50/50, then we underperformed. If we underperform, Crawley Town fans should get to vote on who the next directors of the club are."

I am all for embracing modern things into football but such a huge change, could make for an interesting watch.

We await with interest the outcomes from the fan led review. I like the initial findings from the first phase, but you do wonder, how long will it take to having actual proposals and then what is going to be the mechanism for implementing any changes? Without significant support it feels a bit like turkeys voting for Christmas. The review is not all about finances. Other things are important too. Heritage and culture for example. Clubs are key community assets; the club badge is the identity, and the colours define them. If there was one aspect of the Wrexham takeover that I thought they got right, it was in respect of these areas that were guaranteed to be protected.

Scanning the internet, I have come across some possible future changes to the game. I score each one out of 10 as to how much I would support the proposals.

1. Shorter matches (in conjunction with point 2). Two halves of 30 mins. 5/10
2. Stop the clock. No more injury time but stop the clock every time the ball goes out of play. 8/10
3. Unlimited subs. Remove the cap on number of subs used. 1/10
4. Five-minute sin bin for yellow cards. 5/10
5. Throw ins replaced with dead balls taken with feet. 3/10

A mixed bag of proposals in my view. I would be happy with options one and two being implemented as this may discourage time wasting which I feel is a scourge of the game. Option three gets a big thumbs down from me and I know that option four has not gone down well in non-league football where it has been in use for bookings for dissent. I would be concerned if every throw in became an opportunity to lump the ball into the box.

As this season ends (written with 5 games left), we don't know what is in store for us next season. For me that's the beauty of football. We will go again with fresh hope but with the uncertainty of investment, ownership and who will lead us. It feels like we are just about to start on another lap of the Brunton Park rollercoaster. Hold on to your hats!

CARLISLE UNITED FOOTBALL CLUB COMMUNITY SPORTS TRUST

Happy Easter and welcome to today's match.

Recently at Carlisle United Community Sports Trust, we held our holiday camps in Carlisle, Penrith, and Wigton, with activities including dance, gymnastics, and football.

It's been a great two weeks experiencing every possible form of weather from snow to thunder, but that didn't dampen the high spirits of the kids as our dance and gymnastics group had fun with cartwheels, and performing a dance routine for an audience!

Whilst our football group practiced their skills, took part in drills, and learned new techniques ready to put into play for the tournaments.

It was a pleasure to see so many old faces and new as we sold out on all 6 camps over the Easter break!

Our next camps are coming up during the May/June half term break at Carlisle and Wigton.

MESSAGES AND BEST WISHES

A number of fans got in touch recently to ask us to wish a very happy retirement to huge United fan Tommy Michalek, who blew the platform whistle on 50 years on the railway two weeks ago.

Tommy, 65, waved his last flag as a Team Leader with Avanti West Coast on April Fool's Day having started his career back in 1971.

It's little surprise to learn that Tommy tends to use the train to get to away games - kind of a busman's holiday.

Speaking recently, Tommy said: "I've really enjoyed my time on the railway and had a good career. I love Carlisle station - it's my home station, where I've spent most of my working life - but it's the people that make it.

"I'm going to miss my colleagues and look forward to seeing them when I travel by train to watch Carlisle United."

Cousin Ronald Graham said: "Tommy has been called United's number one supporter in the past and it would be lovely if we could mention his retirement after 50 years of dedicated service.

"He's a very quiet man, he wouldn't ask for this, but he should be very proud."

Marc Webber, who works for Avanti West Coast, said: "Tommy is a Paddock season ticket holder and was one of our longest-serving Carlisle employees.

"As one of our colleagues on his farewell video said - 'Carlisle United's gain is Avanti's loss!'"

Tommy - from us all - Happy Retirement!

Thanks to Sebastian Sidnell from Doncaster who kindly donated two Carlisle United home shirts.

Here you can see Jane McCall - Play Specialist on the Children's Ward at the Cumberland Infirmary - receiving the shirts last week.

*Paul Simpson booked v Tranmere (2 April 22)

Carlisle United's #EFLWeekOfAction activities included a visit from first-team players Jamie Devitt and Callum Guy to the Tuesday afternoon Mental Health football session in the Neil Sports Centre.

The pair watched the first part of a keenly contested game before a break was called - with the score at 3-1 - and the group members were then given the chance to ask questions and chat with their special guests.

When asked what had changed to bring such a good run of results under the new manager, Jamie Devitt said: "It's such a difficult question to answer. With him knowing the area and the club I think him coming in brought everybody together, and that was massive."

"In the games before he came you could feel that the fans were nervous, but all of a sudden there was a really positive feeling around the club, in the dressing room and from the supporters, and I think everybody fed off each other. Things have gone on from there."

And on what it feels like to have played a part in a goal that meant so much, like the last-minute header from Morgan Feeney at Oldham, Callum Guy said: "You've no idea. There just isn't a feeling like it."

"Knowing how important it was, and then seeing all the fans running down the steps to celebrate, and how happy they were, it's incredible."

"I wish I scored more myself, but it doesn't matter who gets them as long as we're on the winning team."

The Mental Health football sessions are held on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons at Brunton Park and continue to go from strength to strength.

"We've been running this scheme for a number of years now and we're delighted with it," CST manager John Halpin said.

"It's a great way to get people together who perhaps wouldn't come out of the house other than to do their shopping, or go to do a little bit of work, and you can see how much they enjoy being able to come here and get together at the football club."

"They're all supporters, and meeting the players is fantastic, it really is. A lot of them are dealing with things on a daily basis and the boost this gives them simply can't be measured, other than in terms of the fact you can tell that they're absolutely buzzing that it's happened."

Timed to coincide with the #EFLWeekOfAction the Community Sports Trust this held its first ever Armed Forces and Veterans Club meeting in Foxy's Restaurant here at Brunton Park.

The concept of a club specifically to cater for serving and former members of the Armed Forces has been on the CST agenda for a number of years, and John Halpin spoke about his pride at having finally got it up and running.

"It's something we've talked about for a good while, but different factors, beyond our control, have stopped it from going ahead," he explained.

"We've stuck at it and we're absolutely delighted that we've got ourselves to the point that it's now up and running, with our first meeting a really successful one."

"It was unbelievable how relaxed it was, and it was fascinating to see how quickly everybody settled into the swing of the event. Some of the stories being told were quite simply fascinating."

"Having now had this first get-together we can see that it's going to be a valuable addition to the work the Community Sports Trust does and we're looking forward to many more meetings to come."

"The important thing we wanted to get across was that we're an addition to the excellent services, organisations and groups that already exist in Cumbria for serving and former service folk," club media officer Andy Hall said.

"It was really refreshing to have people from some of those organisations come along to lend us their support."

"There were members of the British Legion, the Museum of Military Life's Lunch Club, Step Together and other veterans clubs, and we also had a member of the Duke of Lancs community team from Preston who joined us."

"That's a great example as far as I'm concerned as to how the military community naturally comes together."

"This morning's event was really informal, it was a great opportunity to share stories and experiences many of us had forgotten, and the intention is that all of our meetings will be the same going forward."

"I have to thank everybody who came, including the staff from caterers John Watt who looked after us so well."

The CST Veterans Club will meet once a month.

If you're interested in popping along for a brew and a chat about all things military, send an email to media@carlisleunited.co.uk and we'll add you to the email list and Whatsapp Group.

TOGETHER AGAINST DISCRIMINATION

Football is a game of many opinions, but there is one that we must all share. There is no place for discrimination in our game. If you do not agree, then you are not welcome.

If you see or hear discrimination in this stadium, please report it to the nearest steward or via the Kick it Out App.

Because we are all

FFS...
FOR FOOTBALL'S SAKE

Our #WhateverItTakes matchday a few weeks ago will live long in the memory for being a wonderful day with a big crowd, and the best ending we could imagine.

So, it's extremely disappointing, with that in mind, that we have to again plea to fans about behaviour.

As we all witnessed, we once again had pitch invaders and a bottle thrown onto the pitch.

As a result we have been reported to the authorities. This is not good for the club.

Chief executive Nigel Clibbens said: "All four people who went onto the pitch were children.

"One was with a parent, and not yet even a teenager. The others were all aged 14 or under.

"They have all been banned and are being dealt with by police. The two from a previous game who did this have also been banned.

"We are now having to bring in, at extra cost, more additional stewards to deal with this.

"We must remind everyone that going onto the pitch at any time is a criminal offence. It isn't a joke, or a bit of fun, it carries serious consequences, no matter how old you are."

FFS - For Football's Sake - don't do it.

KEEP OFF THE PITCH.

YOU WILL BE CAUGHT AND YOU WILL BE BANNED. WE HAVE A ZERO-TOLERANCE APPROACH TO THIS KIND OF BEHAVIOUR.
